Present Site
Is Approved;
Plans Ordered

Council Accepts
Recommendation
On New Park Name

City Council last night took three major steps ahead in the construction of the new sewer plant, by approving the sewer plant site, ordering the engineers to proceed with the preparation of plans, and hiring an appraiser to appraise the Tahquitz Channel easements.

According to special engineering consultant Marion Crist, it will take about five months to prepare the plans for the plant, and at the same time plans will be finished and work will be started on the construction of main trunk lines. Plans for the trunk lines and acquisition of the rights-of-way through one of the sections, are expected to be completed within five weeks.

IN OTHER ACTION last night the city council accepted the recommendation of the Parks and Recreation Board that the park buffer zone, which will be located between the sewer plant and the residential district of Sunny Dunes Village and the Veterans tract, be named DeMuth Park, and funds given to the city for park use will be used to equip and plant the park.

The city proposes to build a complete sewerage treatment plant on the southeast corner of the 40 acres owned by the city, and will use about 24 acres as a park and nursery site.

ONLY A FEW PERSONS appeared before the council at the public hearing last night, most of them with questions concerning the construction of the plant. One of the most important questions asked was whether the complete treatment plant would have an odor, to which Crist answered that he could "guarantee that it would not."

One resident of the Veterans Tract, Arben Sullivan, was actually the only protestant to the location of the sewer plant, but after hearing that the plant had been changed from a primary clarification process to a complete treatment plant, discontinued his protest.

DRIVER USES TRUCK TO STOP RUNAWAY CAR

CANON CITY, Colo. (UPI) — The driver of a light pickup truck used his vehicle Wednesday to slow down and halt a brakeless car rushing down Eight-Mile Hill, scene of five fatal accidents in the past three years.

The runaway automobile was occupied by Mrs. Cleo Roberts of Denver, the driver, and Mrs. Gladys Neal of Wichita, Kan. The truck driver, John Skerjanec, 49, said he was riding down the hill when the car carrying the women skirted past him at a 75 mile per hour speed. "I hit the gas and finally overtook them," Skerjanec said. "Using the rear-view mirror, I synchronized the speed of the truck and the car and let the car's bumper hit my rear bumper."

"In about a half-mile, I had the car slowed to a complete stop."

Mrs. Roberts maneuvered the fleeing automobile so skillfully that neither vehicle was damaged.

Council Acts On Rezoning Of Tahquitz

Vote Overrides Recommendation Of City Planners

Although the Palm Springs Planning Commission recommended that no changes be made in zoning on Tahquitz Drive between Indian Avenue and Sunrise Way, the City Council last night by a vote of 6-1 changed the zoning to C-1b.

Councilman Florian Boyd cast the only dissenting vote after the council held a full 30 minute hearing on the proposal.

THE ZONE CHANGE was made under a council initiative, following six years of work to get the rights-of-way through Section 14.

Members of the Agua Caliente Indian Tribe have indicated that they would give the city the necessary rights-of-way if the city would see its way clear to zone the two mile Tahquitz Drive frontage C-1b.

The city Planning Commission was strong in its stand that C-1b zoning through the downtown section would constitute "strip zoning" and was not good zoning practice.

COUNCILMAN TED McKinney, who as a member of the Planning Commission voted against the rezoning, last night made the motion to approve the change.

Boyd, in casting his negative vote on the proposal, pointed out that the council had no guarantee that the Indians would give the rights-of-way even after the council has rezoned the land.

Judge Refuses To Ban Leasing Of High School

FORT SMITH, Ark. — (UPI) — U. S. District Judge John E. Miller refused today to prohibit the Little Rock School Board from leasing out four closed public high schools for use as private, segregated schools.

He said to issue such an order would mean his passing on the constitutionality of state laws. He said he does not have that authority; it takes a three-man court.

Voodoo Fighters Try for Record

FORT WORTH, Tex. — (UPI) — Three supersonic X101 Voodoo fighter planes, capable of speeds of 1,200 miles per hour, were en route to Carswell Air Force Base today from Bermuda in an attempt to set a nonstop record of 2,000 miles.

Board of Education Member to Request Lowering Of Cost of Food Served at High School, Junior High

Frank Muller, member of the Board of Education of the Palm Springs Unified School District, today said that he was going to lead a careful investigation into the cost of food to local Junior and Senior High School students, and at the same time proclaim that present costs were too high.

Hearing protests from both the parents and school children on the cost of food, Muller, Dr. Charles Webster, principal of the high school, and a Desert Sun reporter went to the high school cafeteria to have lunch with the students, and to inspect the new facilities at the school cafeteria.

AFTER THE FIRST week of school, the cafeteria reports that some 450 students have been served daily through the cafeteria

City Asks Appraisal of Desert Inn

Gives Approval To Circulation Of Petitions

Palm Springs City Council last night ordered an appraisal of the portion of the Desert Inn property which the City is interested in purchasing from Marian Davies. Local appraiser - builder Herb Foster was hired to do the job, and an appropriation not to exceed $1,000 was approved by the council.

THE COUNCIL last night also indicated by unanimous action that it would look favorably on the circulation and signing of a petition asking for formation of a parking district.

Councilman George Beebe was given the job of circulating the petition, and last night asked for the appointment of a citizens committee to help him. Suggested as members of the committee were Dewey Metzger, Irwin Quinn and Tom Kieley.

WHEN SIGNED, the petitions must contain the names of owners of 51 per cent of the assessed valuation of the proposed district and 51 percent of the total area of the district.

The petition calls for 100 per cent financing of the Desert Inn purchase with city funds, with no assessment levied on the property owners within the district.

Aside from funds received through the assessment for off-street parking, the city will contribute annually from sales and use tax funds toward the payment of the bonds and interest.

ERNEST WILSON, special assessment district consultant, will file an immediate case in the Supreme Court of the state to determine whether sales and use tax funds can be used for this purpose.

In the meantime, negotiations are still under way with Davies Building, Inc., for terms of the contract of sale.

Mack, Whiteside Indicted Today

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — A federal Grand Jury today indicted former Federal Communications Commissioner Richard A. Mack and his longtime friend, Thurman A. Whiteside, on charges of conspiring to influence the award of Miami television channel 10.

Attorney General William P. Rogers announced the three-count indictment was returned in federal court here today. Whiteside is a Miami attorney.

Mack resigned from the commission last March 3 in the wake of an investigation of the FCC by the House influence-investigating subcommittee.

MEMBERS OF THE R.P.O. Elks Lodge 1905 made up the work detail to clean all the windows of the Palm Springs Boys Club, completing the final touches on the actual construction of the building. Landscaping, curbs, walks, and furnishings of the building are yet to be completed. Pictured above are some of the Elks who participated in the window cleaning project. At work were Paul Helms of Paul's Window Cleaning Service, Jim Cavett, Jimmy Morton, Art Studebaker, Harry Floyd, Harry Bogert, Jack Riordan, Max Zalkin, Jerry Mitchell and Dr. George Milkie. ## U.S., Red China Hold Fourth Meeting Today

WARSAW, — (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Chinese Communist envoy Wang Ping-nan resumed their negotiations on a Formosa peace formula here today. There were increasing signs the talks were drifting toward a deadlock.

The meeting was the fourth in the current Warsaw series that began after the outbreak of the current Formosa Strait crisis. It was the 77th in a string of U. S.-Peiping ambassadorial discussions that started in Geneva three years ago.

The U. S. was believed still to be seeking an immediate cease-fire in the Formosa Strait. The Communists apparently remained adamant in their stand to end the shooting only when they are assured they can take over the offshore islands.

Chinese Communist sources in Warsaw said the U. S. cease-fire proposal had been rejected "categorically."

George Manington, evening school principal, advised prospective students to register during the first week of the fall class schedule.

Manington also advised that if sufficient interest is evidenced in formation of additional classes, they may be added to the program.

Further information may be obtained at the evening school office, located in the west end of the classroom building fronting Ramon Road.

Bomarc Proves Self as First Missile Killer

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — The Air Force's new long-range Bomarc proved itself a missile killer in a successful intercept of another missile off the Florida coast Wednesday, the Air Force said today.

A spokesman said that in a "mock supersonic missile attack," a 1,000-mile-an-hour X10 missile was "blasted from the sky" by the Bomarc.

"The Bomarc was launched from Cape Canaveral," the Air Force said, "but it was alerted, fired and guided on its intercept mission by remote control from the U. S. Air Force SAGE center at Kingston, N. Y., 1,500 miles away."

The advanced version of the Bomarc, believed to have a range of more than 400 miles, has been touted as the nation's first missile killer. But the "kill" scored Wednesday was the first disclosed by the Air Force.

Troops Patrol Tense Streets Of Beirut Today

BEIRUT, Lebanon — (UPI) — Lebanese troops with shoot to kill orders and backed by American soldiers and Marines patrolled the tense streets of Beirut today to prevent outbreaks of violence from erupting into new civil war.

Official sources reported at least 30 persons killed and more than 50 wounded in clashes Wednesday, with unofficial sources reporting 40 to 50 killed or wounded in one incident alone. No Americans were involved.

President Fuad Chehab late Wednesday named rebel leader Rashid Karami as premier in what was called a victory for the rebels and other factions who had opposed former President Camille Chamoun. It was too early to know whether this would bring trouble from pro-Chamoun factions.

Hurricane Helene Continues Raging

MIAMI — (UPI) — Hurricane Helene, carrying top winds of 80 miles an hour, swirled the waters of the Atlantic Ocean today in a path almost parallel to the northern coast of Florida.

Another point brought to light by Muller was the differential in cost of the food for teachers of both the Junior and Senior High Schools. Both Muller and Dr. Webster agreed that by having the same cost on the food for both the school personnel and the students would allow the teachers a more valid excuse for staying at the school for lunch.

The elementary schools are faring very well in their school lunch programs, serving "class A" lunches for 35 cents.

Muller plans to bring the question of lowering the cost of Junior and Senior High School lunches to the attention of the Board of Education tonight, when the board meets at its regular session.

It was also noted by the visitors that unlike last year, students cleaned their trays and apparently enjoyed their lunches. Very little waste was noted when trays were turned in after the meal.

The newly covered patio has proven to be a very popular eating place for the students, who have vacated the mess hall for the more pleasant surroundings.

THE FOOD BEING served was found to be excellently prepared and appetizingly served, "a tremendous improvement over last year."

According to Muller, the cafeteria showed a profit last year of $6,000, which was carried over to start this year's cafeteria operation, "and with no operational expenses such as rent, salaries and so forth, a large profit is not necessary."

Service at the high school cafeteria has been greatly increased over last year's operation, with the adding of two more lines into

'Crisis Caused By Bombing Of Quemoy'

Asks Support Of Peaceful Negotiations

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd today urged an immediate cease-fire in the Formosa Strait and welcomed the "conciliatory approach by the United States government" to the conflict between Communist and Nationalist China.

"We hope most earnestly that there will be an immediate cessation of military action and the determination to see that the Warsaw talks reach a satisfactory conclusion," Lloyd said in a policy speech to the U. N. General Assembly.

LOYD SPOKE while U. S. and Red Chinese ambassadors resumed their attempts to negotiate a settlement in private talks at Warsaw amid a growing feeling of gloom and war - scares in the world's capitals. Against that background, lobby conversations here sought to win quiet negotiations within a U. N. framework but no definite developments had yet emerged.

"The government of the United Kingdom support the United States government in their wish for a peaceful settlement," Lloyd said.

"THE CRISIS HAS been immediately precipitated by large-scale bombardment of Quemoy by Chinese Communist forces. We hope that this resort to force will be terminated and that the Chinese Nationalist authorities will also abstain from military activities..."

Lloyd noted President Eisenhower's declaration on Sept. 12 that "measures can be taken to assure that these offshore islands will not be a thorn in the side of peace" and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' call in the assembly for "a cease-fire and equitable conditions."

"We welcome that conciliatory approach by the U. S. government," he said. "We deprecate the violent and provocative language used about the situation by spokesmen of the Chinese People's Republic and of the Soviet Union."

He got his answer the other day—a 22-foot long, 14-inch wide letter that took him one and one-half hours to read.

Boiler Technician 3c Donald W. Lang, of Portland, Ore., said it was one on him all right—and then sat down to pen a 23-foot reply.

Lang, who is stationed aboard the LST Salline County, thought a moment and added, "Gee, we'll probably be back on the coast by the time I'm finished."

Transfer in Power

China's Mao Has Taken Command

(Editor's Note: Something dramatic has happened in the Communist camp—an intense challenge by China's Mao Tse-tung of Nikita Khrushchev's ideological leadership of the Communist world. Some very well qualified sources say it is more than a challenge and that Mao has already eclipsed Khrushchev. And with his powerful following in the Communist world, they say, Mao has maneuvered Khrushchev into a position of full support for China's position in the Formosa Strait crisis, with the result that Moscow has become a passenger in a car driven by Mao alone. Following is the first of two dispatches by UPI Diplomatic Correspondent Karol C. Thaler on this important shift of power in the Communist world.)

By K. C. THALER
United Press International
LONDON — (UPI) — Is Russia pulling the strings in the Formosa crises? Or is it strictly a Chinese Communist show with Russia left with no choice but to support anything Peiping decides to do?

President Eisenhower's latest exchange with Nikita Khrushchev indicates the United States, at least, is convinced Russia can exert whatever pressure she desires on Communist China.

BUT THAT VIEW is not shared by many diplomatic sources here, particularly by Eastern European experts who are in an especially good position to weigh the stresses and strains in the Communist camp.

These sources say Mao Tse-tung already has eclipsed Khrushchev.

'Mystery Man' Henry W. Grunewald Dies After Suffering Severe Stroke

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunewald, one-time influence peddler and "mystery man," died here early today after suffering a severe stroke. He was 65 years old.

Grunewald was stricken in his apartment Monday and taken to Georgetown University Hospital. He never regained consciousness.

AT THE TIME of his death, he was awaiting a retrial on charges of conspiring to fix income tax suits. He was convicted of the charge in New York city in 1953 but the Supreme Court set the conviction aside last year on grounds that the judge had instructed the jury improperly.

A second trial last July ended with a hung jury and a third trial was scheduled for next month.

GRUNEWALD, SOMETIMES called "The Silent Dutchman," figured prominently in House investigations of tax scandals in 1951-52. He once boasted that he had many friends in both parties in high places in the nation's capital, where he had lived off and on since the 1920s.

His checkered career at one time or another included jobs with such varied organizations as the Justice Department and the Republican National Committee.

Palm Springs Leads County In Increase in Students

Palm Springs and Coachella Valley school enrollment gains this fall are greater than in any other sector of Riverside County, the county superintendent of schools office reported yesterday.

Palm Springs Unified District—with 3,000 students—is up 12 per cent last year, and totals for eight Coachella Valley districts show a 11 per cent jump.

As elsewhere in the county, secondary school enrollment gains at Palm Springs are proportionately greater than elementary increases. Palm Springs High Schools' 16 per cent increase compares with a countywide 13 per cent increase in the secondary school population.

PUC Has Under Advisement New Phone Service

The California Public Utilities Commission today has under submission an application of the Coachella Valley Telephone Company to extend service to resort areas adjacent to the Salton Sea.

The company proposes to establish a Salton exchange to serve the developments of Desert Shores, Sun Dial and Salton Sea Beach, south of the Riverside-Imperial County lines.

Robert H. Kennedy, tract manager of Salton Sea Village, asked the company establish a central office in Salton City so that development could have local rather than toll service. J. C. Newman, vice president and general manager of the telephone company, told Examiner Stewart C. Warner that the Salton City area did not warrant local service at this time.

A previous public hearing on the application was held last Aug. 21 in Indio. At that time the Salton Telephone Company, newly incorporated, asked to serve the same area sought by the Coachella Company. The new company withdrew its application on Sept. 19.

Old West Still Popular in Village, Vander Veer Reports

Dick Vander Veer, general manager of Palm Springs' El Mirador Hotel, has taken up the cudgels in opposition to the recently expressed theory that saddies and spurs are fast fading from the desert resort city social scene.

According to Vander Veer, the scrapping of the traditional Western Week as a winter season inaugural event hasn't sounded the death knell of the town's Old West atmosphere.

AND THERE'S NO gainsaying the formidable nature of his rebuttal. Reports Vander Veer: 857—count 'em—persons already hold reservations for El Mirador's inaugural Western Outdoor Steak Barbecue on Oct. 7.

Decked out in western garb, this army of would-be cowboys and cowgirls will reach the barbecue grounds via typically western conveyances, such as the trolley and haywagon.

THEY WILL SIT under the stars at tables grouped around blazing campfires. The tables will be laden with vittles typically range - style. The entertainment will feature nostalgic cowboy songs and community campfire singing led by guitar-playing Tex Kidwell starting his sixth successive El Mirador season.

Does that sound like Palm Springs is hanging up its ten gal-Veer's money.

Surprise Attack on America Could No Longer Succeed

As President Eisenhower recently pointed out, the world-wide American defense system has now been expanded and implemented to the point where it is no longer possible for Russia or any other potential enemy to "succeed" in a surprise nuclear attack on the United States.

It is true that a sneak atomic attack might get through sufficiently to wreck great havoc and loss of life in this country.

But it is now an undisputable fact that any nation dropping one or a hundred bombs on American soil could likewise be leveled within a matter of hours and retaliatory bombing continued for days and weeks afterward no matter how serious the damage within the United States.

Three potential atomic arms of our military defense are on the ready to go into instant defense of our nation every hour of the day and night.

American bombers are known to be on constant and endless flight within quick striking distance of Russia and her satellite nations.

Widely scattered ground bases are equipped to launch long range atomic missiles on a moment's notice with a range up to 6,000 miles with Moscow an easy target.

And now our fleet of atomic submarines are capable of great distances and depths in carrying unstoppable nuclear attack to our enemies days, weeks and even months after any blow struck against the United States.

Never before in all the long history of warfare has any country been in the position of still possessing the power and ability of destroying an enemy after it had been ruinously attacked.

Russia is well aware that should a surprise atomic attack be attempted against the United States it would be impossible to stop quick, sure and utter devastation from our powerful retaliation.

That knowledge of our ability to destroy an attacker from bases and positions far from the continental United States is the greatest deterrent to war at this time.

The Soviets will gain everything possible by stirring up strife and threatening, but they are too smart to commit national suicide.

It is well that President Eisenhower has reminded them of the certain destruction awaiting any nation which might attack us.

This Side of The Sun

It's not Springtime in the Rockies But the best season of them all, There's nothing like the color You see here riding Through the Fall.

SALT LAKE CITY Tuesday, 9-23

I don't know why the song writer picked on Springtime to write about the Rockies—perhaps he was in love.

But there's nothing like Autumn where I am now.

SINCE POPPING out of the Moffat tunnel earlier today, I have been riding through a riot of color.

Red, blue, green, yellow canyon walls and the same goes for the trees. Up here in the high country the leaves are really turning. It's a gorgeous sight.

If I didn't dislike the word so much, I'd say fabulous.

WE'RE ON THE banks of the upper Colorado. Here the Green River is really green and the Colorado silvery.

All around me are fellows and women kneeling on seats, their cameras mopping up the scenery. The whirr of movie cameras and the snap as new films are adjusted is well above the whirr of the train.

The people who operate this California Zephyr know their passengers.

On every seat is a little book of advice on how to adjust the shutters to shoot through the windows.

THESE RAILROAD engineers are clever guys.

I'm now on the Rio Grande, the main line of which used to run through Pueblo and the Royal Gorge. Then they bought the Moffat line which bores right through the Rockies and hooked it up to their old main line at Glenwood Springs.

Where they started the connecting line they called the station Dotzero.

So when they got to the other end, they just named the spot, Oreto. Which is Dotzero spelled backwards.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS reminds me of Mrs. Martin, a former Villager who owned an apartment house in Palm Springs and was prominent in club work.

I shall always feel grateful to her. When the late Bill Rashall and I were the sole staff of The Sun, we covered everything, society, churches, clubs, sports, all of it.

Bill didn't like to write social news so I did it. And Mrs. Martin volunteered all of the Women's Club news and other club activities. She was a life-saver.

She now owns property in Glenwood Springs, a beautiful place tucked up here in the Rockies.

THIS RIDE, and the FSP's Shasta Daylight out of Portland south, to me offer the grandest scenery of all.

But I guess it's just the change. People from the eternal green country and from the mountains go into raves over the colorful desert.

It's what you don't see every day that's the prettiest.

Tomorrow San Francisco and then back home.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The London journals are sprightly papers. I "book" them with the hall porter. (You book your papers here. Or, cor, strike a light! You don't get them. None of this last minute phoning down: "Send me a paper.")

What mileage they get out of the Royal Family!

For five days a series has been running on Princess Margaret. "The Radiant Princess" was number one. Second day, "The Gay Princess." Third day, "The Beautiful Princess."

THIS WILL GO ON until our boy runs out of adjectives.

Dukes and Earls and Duchesses and Ladies are great grist. They are discussed in the papers. And all the elegant tail-coated hall porters and top-hatted doormen know what is what and what is going on.

JOURNALISM NOTE: Most successful way to squeeze these knowing gentlemen is flattery.

"I imagine you've seen enough here to write a book."

"Couldn't I just, sir, I was saying to the missus, 'If I was to write down all the things I've seen, I'd make a ruddy fortune,' said."

"A lot of it you could never tell though."

"I WOULD AVE to censor it, sir. Being in this position and all. You're a journalist, sir."

"Yes, I would be the last one you could tell anything to."

"I'm afryde that's correct, sir. Ethics of the 'otel, you know."

He will then go ahead and bend your ear for an hour with the greatest inside scandal you ever heard.

"THE NIGHT LYDY Wuxford 'it is Lordship vine a champagne bucket, sir. Ginned-up as a barrow boy, 'Tike yer 'ands off me,' she says, 'aving another go at the bloke."

The elegant Lady Docker is back in the prints. "The same Lydy that used to drive about, sir, in a gold-plated Daimler wiv zebra skin seats. 'Mink is too 'ot to sit on,' she said."

Lady Docker last hit the front pages when she tiffed with Prince Rainier in Monaco. She was flung out for tearing up the flag.

SHE WISHES TO GO to Monaco because her son, Lance, is in the water-skiing championships.

"No dice," says the Prince. Sir Bernard Docker issued a snooty statement: "In our view this is a disgusting thing to do and it is really mucking about with international sport. It would have been the decent thing to say 'Yes'."

The Prince is sitting tight. The Palace has issued the semi-annual denial that Princess Grace Kelly is expecting another child.

FEW DAYS GO by without horse name. Bellone take to horses like Americans take to cats—up-a-telephone-pole items.

Cyril, a barrow boy from Earls Court, was arrested for driving while drunk in Piccadilly. The interesting part of this was that Cyril was driving a pony named Pinto.

They were weaving through the red double-deck bus traffic when the constables grabbed Cyril and put him in the clink. "I was celebrating after getting back on my feet again after illness," said Cyril.

No charges were placed against Pinto. The constables having smelled his breath and determined he was sober as a Lord, Or Lydy.

EARL WILSON:

Gene Tierney Dates Aly Khan

NEW YORK — Gene Tierney and Aly Khan are dating again! Probably for the first time since their marriage plans collapsed about five years ago, they dined together the other night—at the Chantel.

Gene, in a wool suit the color of raspberry ice, arrived 15 minutes ahead. Aly bounded from his limousine (with diplomatic license plate), kissed her hand, and they chatted not so much in the language of lovers as of two people avoiding mention of the marriage (and perhaps divorce) that might have been.

I'd tell you more but they talked mostly in French: A damned lousy trick to play on a spy of mine trying to eavesdrop! ("Gene and Aly are unfair to columnists!")

Steve Lawrence'll be sprung from the Army—for one day—so he and Eydie Gorme can be Person-to-Personed by Ed Murrow Oct. 3. From Vietnam, Ted Chinnell flashes me that they have a cigarette there called "Miltown Filters." They may be killing you, but you feel happy about it.

George Gobel's bosomy guitar-bringer - outer, whom he calls "Charlie," did so well in his cafe act (bringing out his guitar) that she may be promoted to his TV show. She's really Marilyn Hanhold, a Flushing, L.I., beauty queen. Mickey Rooney keeps calling Jane Kean but she spurns him for Dan Dailey—although the other night she was with producer George Gilbert.

Jokes today must be "weird." Dick Shawn said, opening at the Latin Quarter. The "Who Was That Lady I Saw You With?" gag now goes like this:

"Hey, man, who was that crazy chick I saw you with?" "That wasn't no chick, that was my brother, he's got problems."

Dick did a baseball hit in which an effeminate Dodger pitcher is in love with a baserunner and doesn't want to pick him off first base. Then he pretends to be prez of an Elvis Presley rock & roll fan club who complains a policeman unfairly arrested him for riding his motorcycle only 30 miles an hour. He says the cop roared at him, "Get that motorcycle out of this theater lobby!"

The Fiction List

WASHINGTON, D. C.—It's a temptation in an election year for a writer to switch from fact to fiction, mainly to gain better control over his favorite characters and the most fascinating events. If this newspaper would publish "make-believe," I would pretend:

That Senator Bill Knowland, a high priority on my admiration list, had not got his name associated with Joe Kamp, the pamphleteer and current character-assassin of Labor Leader Walter Reuther. Neither Kamp nor Reuther would make my admiration list, but in all honesty I would not use either one as a character witness against the other. Were I fictionizing the California campaign, I would leave out that part.

THAT SENATOR Clinton Anderson of New Mexico, one of the best brains in the upper chamber, could still higher. Anderson recently made a typically masterful speech in Albuquerque before the Petroleum Industries Committee. His central theme was enlightened protectionism. He said that we had better apply intelligent economies to our natural resources on pain of losing their benefits. Anderson mentioned the President's veto of the 1956 Natural Gas Bill "for reasons entirely unrelated to its merits." He quoted Senate attacks upon the oil depletion allowances, and remarked that "any proposed change is too serious for snap judgment."

HE RECALLED HIS own bill under which public lands would be developed for multiple uses—oil, gas, minerals, grazing, conservation, tourism, reclamation—but not exclusively for any one use. Anderson's speech suggested to me that we need enlightened protectionism of our political resources.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: My husband says I'm narrow-minded, and I say he's no gentleman and hurt and embarrass me in a public place. We went to a cocktail bar for a drink one evening. We had hardly been served when he was invited to another table for a drink. He just left and said he'd be right back. He stayed for fifty minutes, while I sat alone fighting to hold back the tears. I say he should either have taken me to join them or stayed with me. Am I narrow-minded?

SHEILA: You are NOT narrow-minded. A gentleman never leaves a lady alone to "join" others.

DEAR ABBY: I just moved to this town and I wasn't here three days when I fell in love

What a pity that a man from a small State has almost no chance for national office. Yet Anderson (D), Mansfield (D) of Montana and Williams (R) of Delaware are among the best brains in the Senate. I would, if a fictioneer at this season, wishfully tip them for places on the national tickets of 1960.

THAT THE NEW York Times would give American interests a better break. On Sept. 13, 1958, John Carter Vincent wrote a letter to the editor concerning our Far Eastern policy. The letter was published at the top of the column with a preface which identified Vincent as a former State Department foreign service official.

But the preface did not note that in March, 1953, Vincent had been invited out of the Department by Secretary Dulles on grounds of bad judgment and in the nation's best interests. This example of subordinating the national interest to other factors comes close to being a policy of the New York Times.

I KNOW OF an instance when the Times refused in similar circumstances to give the official record on another State Department official who was separated in November, 1954, for almost identical reasons.

The Times, a private enterprise, correctly argues that it has a right to exercise its editorial judgment on everything it prints. But I would wish, and I would fictionize, that this great paper felt an overriding obligation to put the country's interests above those of any favored individual.

THAT AMERICAN magazines also had a better eye for national interests. T. Coleman Andrews, whose pamphlet on inflation was reviewed in this space, tells me he has sold 62,000 copies and expects to reach 100,000. I know that this material the extra-curriculum work of a former director of the Internal Revenue Bureau, was rejected by virtually every leading magazine in the nation. It had to be privately published.

If my editorial bosses would let me "make America over," I would write that two of the nation's leading magazines, instantly recognizing the importance of the inflation subject and the potency of this presentation, conducted a spirited auction to buy the material.

WHEN PUBLISHED (I would invent), the article won its lucky publishers thousands of new readers and, more important, influenced the 1958 election in direction of defeating the big spenders in Congress.

That Presbyterian Bishop Eugene Blake, another cliff-dweller on my admiration list, had not come out for school integration on the rhetorical grounds that "there was no segregation at the foot of the Cross." Gene Blake and I were classmates and club mates at Princeton, too long ago. He has since done me a kindness which, in the good Christian tradition, he has tried to keep from my notice.

But school integration is politics, it is judicial decision, it is social adjustment. As a vestryman in my time, I respect any clergyman who feels, as I feel, that all persons are equal in the sight of Heaven. But school integration should not be made a Federal religion and imposed by the sword upon unbelievers.

I wish Gene Blake had not emotionalized the subject with dubious rhetoric. But, even more, I wish that the letters he must be receiving from the South were not the intolerant kind they probably are. I would, if I could—and who wouldn't?—fictionize this country into a condition of tolerance, one American for another.

—Holmes Alexander

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a man who was married once before. He has two children by his first wife and he is crazy about them. Now I love my husband, Abby, and I think he loves me as much, but he goes to his first wife's house twice a week. He says he goes there to see his children, but he doesn't come home until way past midnight and when he gets home he has lipstick on his face and clothes. He swears there is nothing between him and his first wife. Should I believe him?

SECOND WIFE: DEAR SECOND: If the kids are old enough to wear lipstick—believe him!

Board Rejects Damage Claim For $50,000

A $50,000 damage claim against the county was filed this week by Mrs. Margaret Sandford, 45-711 Grace Street, Indio, and rejected by the Board of Supervisors on advice of County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr.

Mrs. Sandford, well known Indio business woman, blames county neglect of the road in front of the post office at Indio for a fall which allegedly resulted in injuries from which she may never recover.

ACCORDING TO the claim, presented by her attorney, M. Lawrence Carnick of Indio, Mrs. Sandford was walking across the street near the post office at Indio July 3 when she slipped and fell, sustaining "grievous injuries including a fracture of the right patella, loss of two teeth and loosening of several others, numerous cuts and bruises and other grievous bodily injuries, together with great pain and suffering and mental anguish."

"The claimant is informed and believes and thereon alleges that certain of her injuries are permanent and she may never recover therefrom," states the claim which declares that a depression in the pavement and surface irregularities caused Mrs. Sandford to fall.

Field Firing Exercise Held At Twentynine Palms Base

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The First Field Artillery Group task force, commanded by Colonel Curtis Burton, Jr., this week concluded a two day field firing operation in the vicinity of Twentynine Palms.

This task force, comprised of Group headquarters, the First and Second 155 millimeter Self-Propelled Gun Batteries, the third 8 inch Self-Propelled Howitzer Battery and the First and Second 105 millimeter Howitzer Batteries, has been providing general support for the hypothetical attack of a constructive Marine Division against aggressor forces.

THE ENEMY'S crack 15th Airborne Division, consisting of three airborne brigades and divisional artillery was laid under attack by the Third Marine Brigade, during the Marine Division's offensive operation.

Following sporadic, but fierce resistance throughout the front, the enemy withdrew towards Hidalgo Mountain to the northeast. Here he entrenched and began fighting a delaying action, presumably awaiting reinforcements.

AIR SUPERIORITY precluded his being reinforced in sizeable strength during daylight hours. However, excellent avenues of approach and a highly mobile enemy reserve, greatly increased the probability of a night counterattack.

Recognizing these factors, the FAG commander prepared to rapidly mass supporting fires on avenues of approach and suspected assembly areas during hours of darkness. Moreover the Group prepared to provide harassing and interdiction missions, and counter-battery fires directed to the enemy's artillery.

The concept of this field operation was to provide training for units of the First Field Artillery Group in tactical and technical fire direction, occupation and organization of positions, night displacements and to test the mass potential of widely dispersed units.

Top Industry Success at Age of 27 Tells How He Did It

By FRED DANZIG
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Joe McVicker, a phenomenal toy industry success at the age of 27, spent his first year in the business learning that it's not exactly child's play.

Just three years ago, McVicker was helping to run the family wallpaper cleaning compound business in Cincinnati. He knew nothing about the toy industry except that, as the father of a two-year-old girl, it was getting some of his income.

TODAY, McVICKER heads his own toy company, Rainbow Crafts, Inc., a firm expected to gross three million dollars this year.

The firm produces a modeling substance, not a clay, that doesn't stain clothing or furniture and is harmless if swallowed. It's called Play-Doh.

JOE INVENTED it after watching his daughter, Julie, play with samples of dough-like wallpaper cleaner compound. With a little work, thought McVicker, the compound could be developed into a modeling substance.

Since he learned the toy business the hard way, McVicker has a number of tips for anyone else who comes up with a hot game or toy idea and wants to put it on the market.

"Find out who sells what you make and learn how and when they do their buying," said McVicker.

"THE MAGIC NUMBER today is $1. That's the price for a toy. For the Christmas trade, you put out a deluxe version for $2.

"If you have one toy idea, try to spread it around. We have other items on the market today, based on the original Play-Doh."

Educate yourself about the toy business and "business" business. Ask questions of everyone you come in contact with — the toy jobbers, store buyers, salesmen, bankers, advertising men, parents. You may even want to take some night courses in business administration.

Watch out for fads. You must know whether your item is a fad or a staple and act accordingly.

Last but definitely not least, said McVicker, is to protect your item by seeing a lawyer. "There's a lot of pirating in this business. You must guard yourself at all times."

From time immemorial, shells of the cowrie, a handsomely housed gastronaut of the Indian and Pacific Oceans, have been among the most widely distributed forms of money. Even after gold, silver, and bronze coins came into use, cowries served as common currency throughout a vast expanse of the trading world.

Restoration Of Corn Springs Is Suggested

Restoration of Corn Springs in the Chuckawalla Mountains, scene of many a Coachella Valley outing in the old days, was suggested to the Board of Supervisors this week by Randall Henderson, editor of Desert Magazine.

"The serious need for a county park department is emphasized by a letter I received from a desert dweller in your district," Henderson told Supervisor George Berkey.

"THE LETTER CALLS attention to neglect and vandalism which has taken place at Corn Springs — one of the prettiest palm oases in this county. There is a good underground water supply there, but the spring has dried up . . . the place is littered with tin cans . . . the road is in bad repair."

"If the county could assume custodianship of this oasis," said Henderson, "as San Diego County has at Agua Caliente Springs, it could be made one of the most delightful small parks and camping sites in all the county."

HENDERSON COMMENDED Berkey for his "plans for establishing a county parks and recreational activities" department. He expressed the hope that Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen will become interested in the restoration of Corn Springs. He said the old Indian petroglyphs on the rocks there are always interesting to visitors.

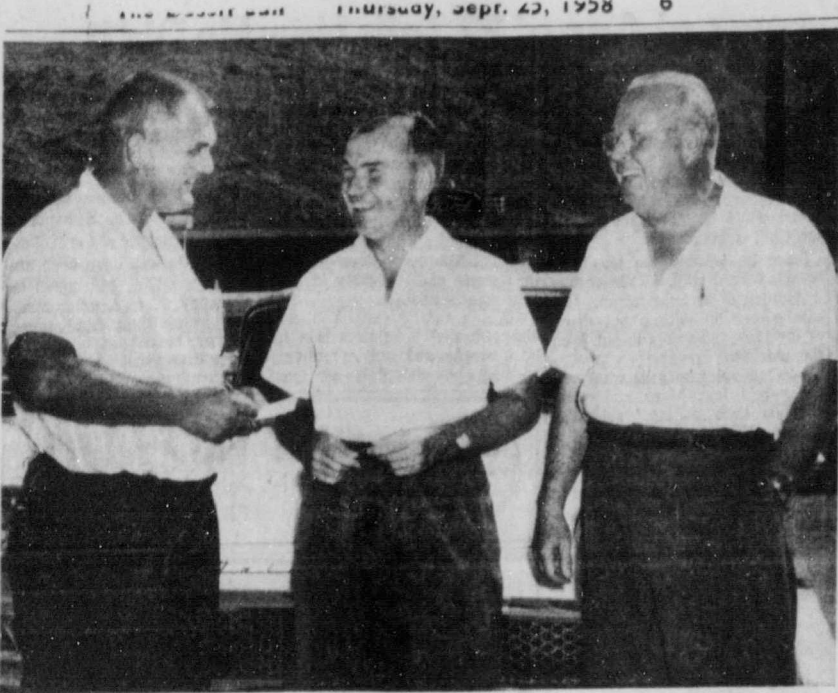

Henderson's suggestions were referred to the administrative officer for study and report.

NEW YORK — (UPI) — A publisher whose specialty is textbooks has a truck with the word "Pass" printed on the left of its rear bumper and the word "Flunk" on the right.

TWO NEWCOMERS to the Palm Springs Ford agency are greeted by Sales Manager Joe Henderson, left. Newest members of the firm are Harry Van Gorp, center, and Graydon R. Ben' Benson, Van Gorp, who originally opened the Ford agency in Palm Springs in 1949, this week returned to the Ford sales staff after an 18-month absence. Benson, long affiliated with the auto business, operated Benson's Auto Glass agency, which he turned over to his son this week. Benson will be service manager for Palm Springs Ford. ## Variance Board Has Two Items

Two Variance Board matters will be taken up by the Board Friday at its meeting in the Council Chambers at the City Hall at 2 p.m.

The first case will be the continued hearing on the application of Donald E. Williams for variance to establish an automobile agency doing auto repair in a building which adjoins an existing hotel use, located at 383 North Indian Avenue.

A second case will be consideration of an application of Sam Stuart, El Paseo Market, for a sign variance.

Katyids have a built-in direction finder. Their ears are located on their front legs and directed forward. On hearing the male's call, the female katydid orients herself in the direction of the invitation and, like an airplane flying on instruments, follows the beam.

Los Angeles County Fair Closes Sunday

The Los Angeles County fairgrounds at Pomona took on an atmosphere of renewed activity today as the huge exposition goes into its final weekend closing, Sunday evening, Sept. 28.

As truckloads and paneloads of fresh flowers, fruits and vegetables were being trucked and flown to the fairgrounds to re-arbitish exhibits and displays in the big Agriculture and Floral buildings, fair officials were laying plans for a series of exciting and colorful events to supplement the regular fair schedule.

FAIR PRESIDENT - Manager C. B. Afterbaueh points out that the best opportunity to see the exposition still remains inasmuch as the final placement of ribbons was completed earlier this week and all exhibits may now be seen with their prize-winning designations attached. The Mexican and Western Villages, Sportsmen's Plaza and the Amphitheater will feature new shows.

Several hundred of Southern California's talented young musicians will participate in a "Youth Band Jubilee" on Saturday and Sunday in the Amphitheater, the event attracting more than a score of top-flight youth organizations.

ON SUNDAY, THE Independent Order of Foresters will conduct a queen contest in the Amphitheater at 11 a.m. and at noon will stage a grand parade featuring their famous Robin Hood Youth band with high officials of the order in the line of march.

The famed Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey Circus will give five performances this weekend with performances at 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday, and three on Sunday, at 1, 4 and 7 p.m. before the huge grandstand. The horse racing program winds up with Saturday afternoon's card.

The 450-acre fairgrounds, with parking facilities for 40,000 cars, opens each day at 10 a.m.

Flipping Your Wig May Be More Than Hypothetical

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's getting so you can't tell the pompadour without a program.

All because of the wig hairdos which sprouted in Paris last year and now have become such an American fashion that Sears, Roebuck is selling them mail order.

"The wigs aren't a fad," said Doris Fleischer, treasurer of the Joseph Fleischer Co., which has been in other people's hair for 128 years. "They'll stay in style because they provide the solution to a problem plaguing 50 per cent of the female population—that of baby-fine, limp locks."

But women other than those with hair problems are wearing the new crowning glories covering their own, in colors ranging from a conservative brown to a startling red and white candy stripe.

Some buy them just for kicks; others want a change of color without having to bleach or dye. Still others, especially business women and busy socialites, find them a real hair desperately in need of shampoo and set.

Wig makers can't produce statistics on overall sales of wigs.

but Fleischer said its business has "tripled" since a year ago when Paris designer Hubert de Givenchy put wigs on models for a fashion show. Those were from Carita Souers, Paris hairdressers, who now are doing a boom business internationally.

The first wigs were of genuine hair, most of it from Europe, but it didn't take long for the synthetics to move in. Today, a girl can buy a wig in nylon or dyneel or in a combination of the two, at prices well below those made of nature's product. The synthetics are in the $25 to $35 range; the real, from $125 on up to as much as $350 for a custom job.

With the synthetics came a wider color range, because of the way these fibers take tinting. "Anything that adds to glamour will sell in America," said a realistic business woman named Madame Tovar, a hair stylist in Sweden until 12 years ago when she came to New York. She pioneered the all-dynel wig, and features it in seven "basic" shades—powder blue, pale pink, pale orchid, black, titian, silver blonde and platinum blonde.

Mrs. Shea said that charter memberships came in approximately as follows for the operating organization: San Bernardino, 85 members; Riverside, 65; Redlands, 26; Fontana and Rialto, 5 each; Palm Springs and Del Rose, 4 each; Mentone, Hemet, Crestline, Patton, Elsinore and Arlington, 3 each.

Invitations are being mailed for the gala opening affair, which will mark the group's affiliation with the Metropolitan Opera Guild and Opera Guild of Southern California. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Shae, Riverside; Gwendolyn Roberts, San Bernardino, and Mrs. Lloyd Hulbert, Redlands.

Opera Guild members will attend the San Francisco Opera performance of "Medea" Nov. 7 and the Riverside Opera Association, "Carmen," Nov. 21. Other events will include an opera film and the presentation of the winners of the San Francisco Opera and "Met" auditions.

Nancy Green Is Married In Pomona

White gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the altar, making a beautiful setting for the early Sunday afternoon wedding of former Villager Nancy Green to Anthony Joseph Adinolfi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aniello Adinolfi of New York City.

The young couple repeated their wedding vows at a double ring ceremony before Brother Hector in the First Church of Christ in Pomona.

Preceding the bride and groom down the aisle was the pretty little flower girl, Barbara Mondier, niece of the bride, who was dressed in a pale blue imported silk ankle length dress with matching hat. She carried a basket filled with rose petals which she scattered before her.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law Eugene R. Bergeron, of Palm Springs, the bride looked lovely in a ballerina length gown of white net over satin. Her fingertip veil was caught up by a matching net headpiece, trimmed in pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Attending the bride as matron-of-honor was her sister, Mrs. Lee Bryant of Pomona who wore an Italian imported gown of pink with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By JACK CUDDY United Press International Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—The young man was in agony. There were abscesses under his arms which made it torture to swing a bat or throw a ball. Chills and fever racked his body.

Six weeks earlier, while rabbit hunting with his father, they had been scratched by briars. They got their rabbits and tularemia—rabbit fever.

ELEVEN DAYS later his father was dead and doctors advised him to forget about baseball.

But the young man had a poor rookie season the year before and, hiding his sickness, he reported less than a month later to the spring training camp of the St. Louis Cardinals.

That was in 1939. And nobody knew until years later how Enos Country Slaughter conquered a serious sickness as well as the sophomore jinx as he batted a resounding .320 and led the league in doubles.

THAT'S THE SAME Country Slaughter who three years after that harrowing spring led the Cardinals into one World Series and in 1946 wrapped up another for them by romping all the way home from first base on a single.

The same Country Slaughter—now 42 and still giving it that all-out try—who will be one of the New York Yankees' bench weapons when they go into the World Series against the Milwaukee Braves next week.

NOT AS FAST NOW, he still gives it the hustle and charge which shames younger players. So much so that some of them take almost personal offense at the manner in which he drives.

"He busts himself wide open for you," says Casey Stengel. "He's always ready to play and you know he's got everything going in top gear. What more can you ask?"

THEY WERE COUNTING him out, one of those who had to go when the major league cut-down date arrived last May. But the country boy is still wearing those pin-striped flannels as they head into the Series.

What's more, he'll be in there somewhere before it's over: in left field or right field or as a pinch hitter they'd better not take too lightly.

Mays in Front, Williams Is Coming Up Fast

By FRED DOWN

United Press International

It's Willie Mays out in front and Ted Williams coming up fast in the only major league races left—for the National and American league batting titles.

Mays, San Francisco's pride and joy, is on top in the N. L.'s four-cornered race today with a .346 average while Williams, Boston's controversial star, is only three points behind teammates Pete Runnels with a .320 mark.

MAYS CONNECTED for a triple and a double in the Giants' 10-3 loss to the Chicago Cubs Wednesday to take over the lead from Philadelphia's idle Richie Ashburn, who is hitting .344. Willie's average has soared 14 points in a week since he stopped "swinging away" and began to go for short hits.

Williams, who never has hit below .317 in his major league career, had a double and single as the American League champion New York Yankees snapped a six-game losing streak with a 7-5 victory over the Red Sox. Runnels, meanwhile, dropped a point when he had only one hit in four tries.

THE CHICAGO White Sox clinched second place with a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 2-1, and the Kansas City Athletics outclubbed the Cleveland Indians, 7-4, in other American League games.

The Los Angeles Dodgers edged out the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, in the only other National League game.

College Officials Ask 'Raid' Laws

Threaten To Stop Baseball

NEW YORK (UPI)—Four leading college athletic directors today urged professional baseball to enact legislation to eliminate the wholesale signing of under-graduate collegians.

The athletic directors who spoke out against "raiding" of college campuses by organized baseball were L. R. (Dutch) Meyer of Texas A. & M.; Everett D. Barnes of Colgate; Don Faurot of Missouri and Stu Holcomb of Purdue. Their statements were released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

CITING RESULTS from a recent survey by the NCAA and the American Association of College Baseball Coaches, the four directors said that all of the facts were overwhelming in favor of this restriction.

The survey showed that less than five per cent of the 403 college players who signed professional contracts during the last 10 years made the grade in the major leagues.

THE ATHLETIC directors said it was unfair to expect the colleges to continue to expand college baseball by creating additional facilities and increasing budget appropriations when "raiding" and constant interference by professional baseball demoralized teams, lessened interest, irritated college personnel, and "clearly was not in the best interest of the boys involved."

Meyer, for years one of the Southwest's outstanding baseball and football coaches, said:

"UNLESS PROFESSIONAL baseball is willing to come to some agreement to cut down promiscuous raiding of college players, I would be in favor of dropping intercollegiate baseball at our institution and would recommend that the Southwest Conference abandon it as an intercollegiate sport."

"It doesn't make sense to spend a lot of money for intercollegiate baseball in face of such raiding, particularly when the money could be used in promoting other sports."

British to Try Again for First Win in Cup Race

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI)—The resoundingly beaten British stiffened upper lips today and went out to win or get it over with quickly in the third race for the America's Cup sailing championship.

England's Sceptre sailed jauntily home late Wednesday in the second race of this 107-year-old competition with skipper Graham Mann, friend of Prince Philip, displaying an unmistakable smile.

It must have hurt to grin and bear it for the Sceptre was arriving 11 minutes and 42 seconds after helmsman Briggs Cunningham pulled the Columbia express into the spot.

Sceptre had been just a forlorn sail on the horizon two miles away when the American boat swept home in the reasonably fast time of 3 hours, 17 minutes and 43 seconds. It gave America a 2-0 lead in this best-of-seven series.

Bassey to Take On Winner

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The winner of tonight's Davey Moore-Kid Anabhuac fight at Olympic Auditorium may meet featherweight champion Hogan (Kid) Bassey in a title bout.

Sizing up SERIES FOES

Warren Spahn

Bob Turley

ONE OF THE GREAT left-handers of all time, Warren Spahn of the Braves is completing his 14th year with the same club and for the ninth time has won 20 or more games. Now 37, Spahn started with Bradford in 1940 and made it to the big time with the Braves in 1942. He spent three years in the Army. His victory total for his career now is over 244. This is his third Series.

ACQUIRED BY THE Yankees from Baltimore late in 1954, Robert Lee Turley has become the club's No. 1 pitcher, a 20 - game winner for the first time this year. Turley, born at Troy, Ill., 28 years ago, started his pro career with Belleville in 1948 and got a chance with the Browns in 1951 but then went into the service. He's been in three World Series and has a 1-2 record.

Sonny Ray Knocks Bowdry Into Hospital, Rated Higher

CHICAGO (UPI)—Sonny Ray threw away the form sheet Wednesday night and knocked Jesse Bowdry, a high - ranked light - heavyweight, into a state of shock and the hospital to greatly improve his own chances to move into the 175-pound title picture.

RAY DESERVED to be the under-dog. He had lost five and drawn five in 27 bouts, and Bowdry, ranked 6th among the 175-pounders by Ring magazine and seventh by the National Boxing Association, had been beaten on-

In Coliseum

Deluge of Homers Didn't Materialize

By ALEX KAHN

United Press International

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The deluge of home runs that critics of the Los Angeles Dodgers said would result from their playing in Memorial Coliseum with its 250-foot left field foul line has failed to materialize, statistics showed today.

With the Dodgers in their final five-game home stand, figures showed that 21 home runs would have to be made by the close of their season Saturday to equal the top home run output of 207 at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn in 1950.

WITH 186 HOMERS hit in the 72 games played in the Coliseum going into the final home stand, the average was 2.58 per game. If that average is maintained during the final five games the Dodgers will end the season with 199 homers hit in their home grounds.

The biggest outburst of four-base hits, chiefly over the "Chinese wall" left field screen came during the Dodgers' first lengthy home stand of 21 games, broken up only by a three-day road trip to San Francisco.

Golf TV Series Filmed Here Shown Now

The Professional Golf TV series, filmed in Palm Springs during the winter season, is currently appearing on television every Sunday night at 8 p.m.

The All-Star Golf program, shown over Channel 9, last week featured the play between Bob Toski and Billy Casper at the O'Donnell Golf Club.

Next Sunday and following week, the All-Star Golf show will feature play at Tamarisk, and the following two weeks will be Thunderbird.

Billy Casper takes on the top pros in golf and wins all five of the resort plays. The TV films were shot on Palm Springs golf courses early this year.

Mississippi Southern Rated No. 1 Small Team

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mississippi Southern, a team which whipped such major foot ball schools as Georgia and Alabama in recent years, was named the nation's No. 1 small college team today in the first weekly United Press International ratings.

Mississippi Southern, which boasts two victories and a tie against Alabama plus a triumph over Georgia in the last five years, received five first-place votes and a total of 122 points in the first balloting for the 1958 season.

Connecticut, which tackles a major college foe Saturday and a four-star jinx in Yale, was second with three first-place votes and 105 points. Yale has played 47 games against other Connecticut schools and never has been beaten in those clashes.

Idaho State, which goes after its fifth Rocky Mountain Conference title in seven years this season, was third with four first - place votes and 88 points. Chattanooga was fourth with a first-place vote and 69 points.

Idaho State, which goes after its fifth Rocky Mountain Conference title in seven years this season, was third with four first - place votes and 88 points. Chattanooga was fourth with a first-place vote and 69 points.

DURING THAT period 63 homers were hit, an average of three a game. Even if that average should be equalled during the final stand, it still would leave the Dodgers below their top Ebbets Field mark.

The statistics bore out the denials of Dodger officials and Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick that the short left field foul line would make a "travesty" of the game, that Babe Ruth's home run record was endangered and that the game played in the Coliseum was not baseball.

A UNITED PRESS International survey conducted in June showed that the home run average then, including the first 21 games when the rash of 63 four-base hits were made, was 2.66 per game. That average dropped to 2.58 as the season progressed.

With the homer rate not alarming, the Dodgers have indicated they intend to do something to aid left-handed hitters like Duke Snider who have been hampered by the 440-foot depth in right center-field by bringing it in next season.

ALTHOUGH THAT might increase the homers by left-handers, the Dodgers feel that the more normal homer output demonstrated during the second half of the season would equalize the situation.

Manager Walt Alton pointed to his previous prediction that the homers would drop off as pitchers got used to the playing conditions in the Coliseum.

Alton found he had better success with his left-handed pitchers in the Coliseum than with his right-handers, despite the statements that opposing batters would "murder" left-handed pitching because of the short left-field line.

Moore, Durelle Slated to Sign For Title Bout

MONTREAL (UPI)—Champion Archie Moore and Canadian Yvon Durelle were slated to sign today for their world light - heavy-weight title fight at the Forum here Dec. 10.

Moore, at least 42, will receive a guarantee of $75,000 for his seventh defense of the 175-pound crown which he won from Joey Maxim in December, 1952.

Durelle, 29, champion of the British Empire, is guaranteed his 60 per cent of net receipts will be at least $87,000. But out of that he must pay Moore's $75,000 guarantee.

In other words, the challenger's purse will be at least $12,000. Promoter Eddie Quinn expects a crowd of more than 12,000 and a gate of more than $125,000. The bout will be televised to homes throughout Canada and the United States.

Communist Publicity Drums Sound Off When Westerner Defects, But...

By RUSSELL JONES
United Press International
VIENNA — (UPI) — Communist publicity drums sound off with an exultant beat when a Westerner defects to the East. But despite the flourish of welcome at the start, most of these souls are relegated to obscure, pedestrian jobs once their propaganda value withers.

Noel Field was a senior U. S. State Department and League of Nations official before being jailed by the Hungarians. Now he's an editor of tourist guides and other literature put out by the government.

GEORGE WHEELER left a military government job for life in Communist Czechoslovakia. He is an ordinary statistician and his wife a translator. Their older sons, now in their 20's, "volunteered" for factory work as examples of "socialist endeavor." But all of them still claim U. S. citizenship.

"Love that passport" is a keystone phrase in the behavior of this curious coterie. Although dozens, perhaps hundreds, of Westerners have "sought asylum" in the Communist countries, most of them cling tenaciously to their passports.

FEW OF THEM are willing to cut themselves off completely from home base. This was never more clearly illustrated than when Romania recently told foreign residents to get out of the country in 48 hours.

Jonathan Morris had deserted the U. S. Army after World War II to live in Timisoara, Romania. But, faced with the Romanian order, he voluntarily turned himself over to the American military for court martial rather than give up his U. S. citizenship.

IRONICALLY, AFTER several Western governments protested to the Romanians, the pressure on the foreigners was lifted.

Diplomatic reports on the satellite scene now confirm that armed Romanian peasants have resisted attempts to force them into collective farms. There were rumors early this year of widespread fighting in the Constanta area between the peasants and police.

PERFECT PARALLEL PARKING is the aim of student driver Linda Adcock as he cranks the wheel of his driver education auto. But parking's a cinch for any student now, thanks to George Bond, school district transportation supervisor, and his method for painless parking. Calculated to take the bent fenders out of parking, the method is tested by Adcock as Bond and high school student drivers Vera Shaisson and Donald Brown look on. The flags at which the driver is aiming represent the front end of an auto parked behind the space. Flags at the other end of the auto denote the rear of the car parked in front. (Desert Sun Photo)

Salton Sea Trailer Park Permit Action Again Delayed

Following this week's hearing on an application by Edward C. White of Mecca for a permit to establish and operate a trailer park in the Salton Sea area south east of Mecca, the Board of Supervisors referred the matter back to the Planning Commission with a request for a recommendation of specific conditions to be complied with as to sewage disposal and potable water supply in the event the board decides to grant the permit.

Acting on the Planning Commission's recommendation, the supervisors previously denied the application but later set the hearing date when White asked for more time in which to develop plans which might meet with health department approval.

THE SUPERVISORS were advised by Dr. Everett M. Stone, county health officer, that the water table in the area is high and installation of a sewage disposal system might be difficult and also that it might be difficult to obtain a potable safe supply of water as wells drilled in the area have a high fluoride content and are not suitable for domestic purposes.

"Before we could give a clearance on this trailer park as far as licensing and operation are concerned," said Dr. Stone, "we would require a percolation test to determine the soil's capacity for sewage effluent and an engineer's report as to the availability of a safe potable water supply."

WHITE TOLD THE supervisors that the trailer park site is in the Coachella Valley County Water District and canal water is available but there is a possibility that a mutual water district will be formed.

Harold Haskell, who told the supervisors he is interested and has been helping White with his trailer park project because he owns adjoining property, said the canal water is potable, but its use would not be practical if a mutual water company is formed.

The trailer park site is approximately seven miles southeast of Mecca, about a quarter of a mile south of Highway 111, and some 6,000 feet east of the intersection of Highway 111 and Cleveland Street.

"This delay hurts," complained Haskell.

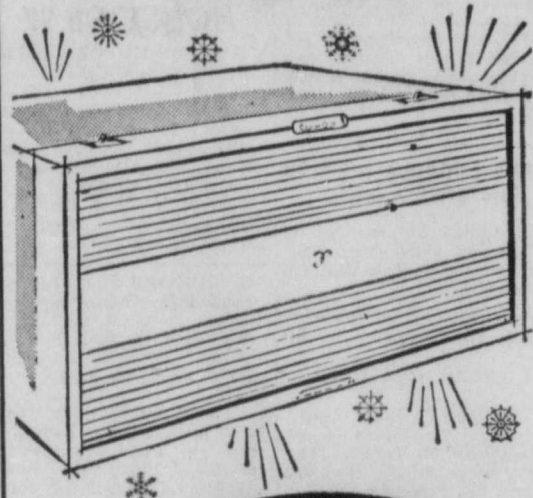

The supervisors asked the planning commission to consider the requested specifications at its regular meeting Sept. 30 and submit a report to the board by Oct. 6.

Villager George Bond May Achieve Fame As Man Ending Game of 'Crinkle Fender'

By AL LE ANCE
Villager George Bond may soon be proclaimed by the nation's long-suffering motorists as the man who forever ended the painful game of "crinkle-fender."

Bond, wily supervisor of the school district's transportation department, has conjured a solution to the parking problem—the problem of getting into a parking space once you find one, that is.

QUIETLY ATTACKING the "most difficult operation of modern-day driving," Bond has a simple and original formula for quick, easy and painless parallel parking.

"It's as simple as learning the ABC's," Bond remarked. "In

Casa de Leon Moves Into New Quarters

Casa de Leon Jewelry Shop, formerly located at The Plaza, has moved into new quarters at 145 East Andreas Road, shop owner Leon Fielding announced today.

The shop is now operating in the renovated former location of an antique shop operated by Fielding's mother, Mrs. Etta Fielding.

Fielding is associated with his wife in the management of the Casa de Leon. The shop was first opened in the Village last year.

A phonograph has been developed in Britain which is small enough to fit into a coat pocket but large enough to play 12-inch records.

fact, the letters A, B, and C contributed to the success of this method of parallel parking."

As outlined in his illustrated pamphlet, "The Bond Simplified Method for Parallel Parking," Bond's formula deals with A—Approach, B—Backing angle, and C—Centering the car.

AND, BOND GUARANTEES, if you follow the steps diagrammed in his soon-to-be nationally circulated booklet, your fender-bashing days are over.

Here's a thumbnail version of his new system:
Starting with the premise that you've observed all the regulations and traffic conditions permit you to park, you start your approach. That's the "A" of this system.

LINING YOUR car parallel to the vehicle directly in front of the space you luckily found, and keeping a distance of two feet from said vehicle, you are now ready to start "B."

Back slowly, turning your steering wheel quickly and completely to the right, and, at the same time look over your shoulder out the door window and take an accurate "sight" on your left rear fender.

Now, when the curb at the right front wheel of the car parked behind your space comes into view and is aligned with your left fender, STOP!, says Bond, and note the position in which your car is stopped.

Matchmakers Lose Reputation

CHICAGO (UPI) — The reputation of Lincoln Park Zoo officials as matchmakers took a beating Tuesday.

Zookeepers introduced a 350-pound boy gorilla named Simbad to a lady gorilla named Lotus, who bit the suitor a half-dozen times and had to be quieted with a tranquilizer.

"THIS IS THE key step to parallel parking," Bond pointed out.

You continue backing slowly, but this time turn your wheel very quickly and completely to the left quickly enough to cause your bumper to "almost" touch the bumper of the car in front.

Complete the backing process, you center the car by turning the wheel to the right, pulling forward until you're centered in the space.

NATURALLY, THIS is a highly abridged version of Bond's formula (and if you have a right-hand drive car, think up your own system), but it gives you an idea of how it works.

And Bond insists that it does work for anybody. He has successfully employed the system in his high school driver education classes.

The result of long and careful study, Bond delved into the problem when he found that the phase of driving most difficult for students to learn is that of parallel parking.

"I SAW A NEED for a simplified method of parallel parking," he explained. "A method that would alleviate the frustration encountered by students and the driver who finds parallel parking to be his 'Waterloo'."

Before, Bond noted, driving instructors patiently plunged into explanation of "parking angles" and the like, to the everlasting confusion of the student.

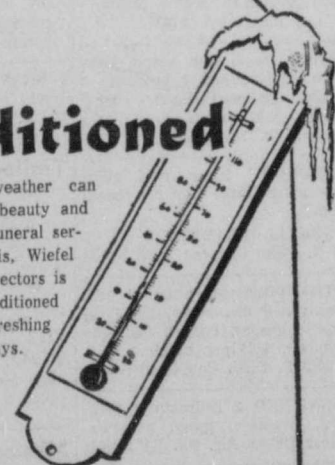

But with the new system, Bond said, "I've taken people who couldn't learn any other method and they got it, just like that." Bond snapped his fingers to emphasize "that."

FOLLOWING THE successful operation of his method, Bond wrote and published his booklet.

Scheduled for circulation throughout the United States and Canada, the "Bond Method" is regarded as a sure-fire bet to chop auto repair bills and ease parking nerves for thousands of motorists.

FORTUNE TELLER?

Yes, any teller at our bank can tell you something important about your future. Without the aid of crystal ball, tea leaves or other hocus-pocus, our tellers know your best protection against a future financial emergency is a savings account at Bank of America! By saving a definite sum every pay-day—while we add regular bank interest to your account—you can soon build up a comfortable "buffer" against unexpected expenses. See one of our friendly, neighborhood "fortune-tellers" about your savings account!

MONSTER-PROOF YOUR HOME

Just about every home has a "monster" problem—a poorly designed room, an old-fashioned kitchen or inadequate wiring, for example. But it's easy to find the solution with a convenient, low-cost Timeplan Home Improvement Loan from Bank of America. Major improvement loans up to $3,500—with as much as five years to repay—can be obtained right here. And all these loans are life insured to protect your family. See any Timeplan contractor or dealer—or us, of course—about a Timeplan Home Improvement Loan!
